

I am writing to ask for your organisation's view regarding disclosure of some information to the public. This is because Great Ormond Street Hospital is in receipt of a Freedom of Information Act request, which includes information relating to your organisation. We want your view with regards to the information we are considering disclosing.

Please see below relevant excerpts from the Harvey Nash Executive Search Proposal for Chief Executive, GOSH which we are considering disclosing:

"Below is a selection of more recent Chief Executive searches undertaken and completed by Harvey Nash. We have indicated many of our recent ones to demonstrate confidence to you in our current traction, connectivity and networks amongst the Chief Executive community.

Client

Roles

Public Health Wales NHS Trust - Chief Executive"

Please could you do the following:

1. Consider whether you have any objection / concerns
2. Email us with these objections / concerns and the reason behind them (please give clear examples)
3. Or email us to let us know if you don't have any objections / concerns

The Trust will make the decision whether or not to disclose this information based on our understanding and application of the law and guidance, however, we would like to know your views during our assessment process.

Public Health Wales gives authority for our recent use of Harvey Nash in the appointment of our CEO.

I would appreciate in anticipation of a subsequent FOI coming our way (and being forewarned), if after redacting the requestors name, you could send me the questions you were actually asked.
