

John Morley (Public Health Wales)

From: FOI (Public Health Wales)
Subject: FW: Information request
Importance: High

In regards to your request for information under the Freedom of Information act regarding reverse osmosis systems.

I can now confirm that Public Health Wales does not have any of these systems, therefore cannot provide any information on them. Public Health Wales runs the Microbiology services for Wales, but these microbiology laboratories are housed in hospitals as 'tenants' of the local health boards. Any reverse osmosis systems (if there are any) would be owned by the individual health boards and used by their tenants as part of the utility services provided.

For your assistance I enclosed the webpage that details the contact details for the Welsh health boards and also other centralised services in Wales.

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request and wish to make a complaint or request a review of the decision, you should write to the Corporate Complaints Manager, Public Health Wales NHS Trust, Unit 1 Charnwood Court, Heol Billingsley, Parc Nantgarw Cardiff, CF15 7QZ.

If you are not content with the outcome of your complaint or review, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the ICO cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the complaints procedure provided by the Trust. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
