Information requested:

Excluding multi-functional devices with a fax function, how many stand-alone fax machines does Public Health Wales Trust own?

Information provided for the answer:

Public Health Wales has an Informatics team that control our telephony. This team supports 20 stand-alone faxes for use within our offices.

Most Public Health Wales teams and staff are hosted by the Health Boards in Wales and therefore their telephony and faxes is provided by these host organisations, therefore we are unable to inform you of numbers.

In order for you to get a complete and accurate total you will need to contact the Health Boards in Wales and ask them for the information. These organisations can be contacted here:
